Hi Anthony,

When we decided to sell the business then for us it was important that we chose the right partner to help us through the process. After much searching we came across Acquire Business Sales Ltd and following a meeting with yourself we decided to bring Acquire on board. Acquire appraised our business and then helped us form a strategy for marketing the business to suitable purchasers. Within days of marketing we started receiving calls, Acquire vetted all calls to qualify the interest in the potential buyer. With the information gathered by Acquire on the interested parties we were able to make a decision on whether we meet them or not. Acquire ensured that we were fully protected with non-disclosure agreements and that gave us the confidence to discuss our business openly.

The day came when we decided on the right buyer for the company, Acquire helped us through the next phase of the business sale and ensured that they were available should we have questions or concerns.

We would have no reservations in recommending Acquire Business Sales Ltd to any business owner looking to sell. Acquire's staff are friendly, informative and always willing to go the extra mile for you.

Joe Burns & Rory Perkins

Thanks
